My Dear Hersh:-

4-19-45

We received a letter from Mrs Hall, Bob's mother and it was a masterpiece. She told us about Bob and how you stood by him and helped carry him when the medic finally came. He says he owes a lot to you. He is in limited service now and what his injury is his mother doesn't know. Arnold has been to see him and we finally got his address so we all wrote to him and his mother. We are all fine here and in L.A. Our Laurie looks like you did as a baby as we compared your picture with hers. She is a doll and waiting for that stroll thru the park this summer. We will try to get you the cigarettes and mail them as soon as your package number reaches us. Is there anything else you would like now in the way of a package? Keep well dear and I hope you'll be able to answer soon Gave Bob your address. Love and good luck

 Your Sarah
 and Ben
