AMERICAN RED CROSS

London
29 May 45

Dear Bea,

I just received my mail last night - my mail for the last 30 days. We are checking in England and have been all over. When we got back here to London our mail was waiting for us. I received your two letters and one from your sister. I was greatly relieved by the first one - but I didn't let the second one.

I'm sure that by now you have received good news. I'm very sorry I can't look up that boy in Paris. If I were only there it would be so easy. I'm afraid that by now it is too late to do much good, as you probably have heard. I'm very sure that everything is alright.

I received a letter from Pappas in the same bunch of mail and a letter is on its way to him telling him all I know. I am enclosing his address we care you might want to write to him. He says he's still going and he's convinced that the "three" of us will "walk the U.S.A. streets together again."

I will never lose Faith that all will come out okay.

I miss Herb so much - I'll never find a finer buddy. His ideas & ideas of life were so fine and so sweet. I've seen a lot of guys but I can't find one that compares to Herb.

I know we will meet again and I hope its in the very near future. I'm so proud of Herb myself - I can imagine just how you feel.

I sincerely hope "good news" beats this letter to you. Please let me know anything new - I only wish I could do something to help but now I'm not in the picture. Sincerely yours
Bill H.
